

Solicitors as directors of ILPs and corporations—What you need to know

Recorded: 24 February 2021 | 1 hour 5mins
2020/2021 or 2021/2022 CPD year

Overview

Recent amendments to the Legal Profession Act 2007 (Qld) strengthen the provisions relating to suitability matters and show cause events, relevant to solicitors who are directors of Insolvent incorporated legal practices and corporations.

Join our expert panel of presenters as they discuss the amendments, risks, directors' obligations and offer regulatory guidance on how you can pro-actively manage any financial challenges as a practising lawyer.

1 CPD Point

HOT TOPIC

1hr 5mins

Solicitors as directors of ILPs and corporations—What you need to know

Recent amendments to the Legal Profession Act 2007 (Qld) strengthen the provisions relating to suitability matters and show cause events, relevant to solicitors who are directors of Insolvent incorporated legal practices and corporations.

Join our expert panel of presenters as they discuss the amendments, risks, directors' obligations and offer regulatory guidance on how you can pro-actively manage any financial challenges as a practising lawyer.

Presenters:

Michael Brennan, Councillor, Queensland Law Society; Managing Principal Offermans Partners; Member, Queensland Law Society Professional Conduct Committee and Member, Queensland Law Society Insolvency and Reconstruction Law Committee

Lauren FitzGerald, Manager and Principle Regulations Solicitor, Queensland Law Society

Peter Mills, Special Counsel, Thynne + McCartney; Member, Queensland Law Society Banking & Finance Committee, and Immediate Past President (Qld Division) Australian Institute of Credit Management

Chair: Sharon Sangha, Professional Development Solicitor, Queensland Law Society
