

Modern Advocate Lecture Series 2025: Lecture Two

Tuesday 19 August

Program

Opening remarks

78 min Modern Advocate Lecture Series 2025: Lecture Two

The Queensland Law Society (QLS) Ethics and Practice Centre's Modern Advocate Lecture Series helps junior lawyers in a few ways:

- It brings them together to build connections within the legal community.
- It gives them the knowledge and skills they need to improve their advocacy.

Each session focuses on practical advocacy skills and discusses some of the ethical considerations involved. These lectures are especially useful for junior lawyers and offer great networking opportunities for those early in their legal careers.

In Lecture 2 we will be joined by two Judges of the Planning and Environment Court of Queensland. In collaboration with the Planning and Environment law Committee, our judicial officers will speak to their experience in the jurisdiction, as well as operation of their courtrooms more broadly.

Presenters:

His Honour, Judge Michael Williamson KC, District Court of Queensland

Her Honour, Judge Nicole Kefford, District Court of Queensland
